

25 Years of Ancient Celtic at Aberystwyth / 25 Mlynedd o Hen Gelteg yn
Aberystwyth
25 October 2025

Tŷ Trafod
Visualisation Building, Penglais Campus, Aberystwyth, SY23 3BF

9.30 – 11.20

Simon Rodway (Aberystwyth University):

Introduction: 25 Years of Ancient Celtic studies at Aberystwyth.

Patrick Sims-Williams (Aberystwyth University):

The Celticity of “Celtic Britain”.

Nicholas Zair (University of Cambridge) & Mark Darling (Julius-Maximilians-Universität Würzburg):

Celtic in the curse tablets from Uley.

Coffee break

11.50. – 13.00.

Torsten Meissner (University of Cambridge):

Some (very) British names.

David Parsons (University of Wales Centre for Advanced Welsh and Celtic Studies):

Celtic before Cornish: some thoughts on the earliest linguistic evidence from south-western England.

Lunch break

14.15. - 15.50.

Alexander Falileyev (Aberystwyth University):

“New” Gaulish names from Aquitania and their importance for Celtic historical grammar.

Corinna Salomon (University of Vienna):

Graphematical considerations regarding the Greek supplementary letters in Gallo-Latin inscriptions.

Juan Luis García-Alonso (University of Salamanca):

Again on Hispano-Celtic vs Celtiberian: was there a Non-Celtiberian Celtic in Northern Hispania?

Tea break

16.10.-17.40.

John T. Koch (University of Wales Centre for Advanced Welsh and Celtic Studies):

PIE > Celtic: implications of new evidence for an updated working hypothesis.

Luka Repanšek (University of Ljubljana):

Back to the Perfect: Reconsidering the 3rd sg. perfect ending of CeH*-roots in Ancient Celtic.

Simon Rodway (Aberystwyth University):

Closing remarks.